

The Kerala Fishermen Welfare Societies Act, 1980

Act 7 of 1981

Amended by Acts 8 of 1985 and 26 of 1986

An Act to provide for the organisation of fisheries villages and to constitute fishermen welfare societies for such villages with a view to develop the economic, social and cultural life of the fishermen community in the State of Kerala.

Preamble.- Whereas the main advocacy and means of livelihood of the fishermen community in the State of Kerala is fishing;

And Whereas the entire economy of more than four hundred villages, which are inhabited mainly by members of the fishermen community, depends upon the income of those members from fishing operations including sale of the catches.

And Whereas the fishermen are, to a large extent, indebted to money lenders who are exploiting the economy of the fishermen community in general;

And Whereas the boats, crafts and nets used for fishing are not owned by the fishermen, but by others who exploit the fishermen by expropriating the major part of their earning as rent of such implements and other charges in respect thereof;

Statement of Objects and Reasons

I

Act 7 of 1981

The fishermen in the State are leading a very pitiable life in view of the risky nature of their occupation. They are also being exploited by money-lenders.

Government have been implementing a number of welfare measures for their uplift and welfare. But, those welfare measures could not achieve the desired relief to the fishermen. It was therefore considered necessary to organise them into village groups and to constitute welfare societies for each village group and to develop the economic, social and cultural life of the fishermen community on that basis.

As the Legislative Assembly was not in session, the Kerala Fishermen Welfare Societies Ordinance, 1980 was promulgated by the Governor on the 20th November, 1980, to give effect to the above proposal. The Bill seeks to replace the Ordinance by an Act of the Legislature.

II

Act 8 of 1985

The Kerala Fishermen Welfare Societies Act, 1980 provides for the organisation of fisheries villages and to constitute Fishermen Welfare Societies for each such village. Section 14 of the Act provides that the management of the affairs of the Fishermen Welfare Society shall be vested in the committee of that society. As per section 15 of the Act, the Fisheries Officer shall be the Secretary of the Committee.

And Whereas the fishermen are also exploited by money-lenders, middlemen by purchasing or otherwise depriving them of their without payment of the due price therefor, either by advancing or by any other method;

And Whereas the fishermen are so deprived of the legitimate fruits of their industry and labour;

And Whereas it is necessary to end exploitation of fishermen by money-lenders and middlemen and to develop the economic, social and cultural life of the fishermen community;

BE it enacted in the Thirty-first Year of the Republic of India as follows:-

1. Short title, extent and commencement.-

- (1) This Act may be called the Kerala Fishermen Welfare Societies Act, 1980.
- (2) It extends to the whole of the State of Kerala.
- (3) It shall be deemed to have come into force on the 21st day of November, 1980.

Statement of Objects and Reasons (Contd.)

2. Clause (d) of section 2 of the Act defines "Fisheries Officer" as an Officer appointed as such by Government for each fisheries village to exercise the powers and to perform the functions of the Fisheries Officer under the Act. The power to transfer the Fisheries Officer also vested in the Government under sub-section (4) of section 15 of the Act.

3. The Government considered it necessary to bring the Fisheries Officers of the Fishermen Welfare Societies under the administrative control of the Kerala State Co-operative Federation for Fisheries Development in order to build up a pyramidal co-operative structure for integrated development of fisheries in the State. The Act has to be amended for the purpose. Since the Legislative Assembly was not in session and the amendment has to be given effect to immediately, the Kerala Fishermen Welfare Societies (Second Amendment) Ordinance, 1984 (77 of 1984) was promulgated by the Governor on the 28th day of November, 1984.

4. The Bill seeks to replace the said Ordinance by an Act of the State Legislature.
